

Corrected ± 7 -day tropical-cyclone exposure and birth outcomes

Primary 34-kt wind-field exposure; adjusted logistic models with conception year-month and county fixed effects

● Increased odds ● Includes the null ● Decreased odds

Points are adjusted odds ratios; bars are 95% confidence intervals. Standard errors are clustered by county.

The symmetric ± 7 -day indicator covers the seven days before through seven days after the residence-specific local impact date.