

Gestational risk sets and time-varying storm exposure

Illustrative pregnancy with residence-specific local impact at 30 weeks of gestation

Pregnancies contribute unexposed person-time until local storm impact. Storms on or after delivery do not assign exposure. Delivery before an outcome cutoff is an event; an ongoing pregnancy is censored at the cutoff. The displayed acute intervals follow the current code: days 0–3 and days 0–7 after impact, inclusive.