

Corrected ± 1 -day trimester models versus 0–3-day time-to-event models

34 kt local wind-field exposure; points show adjusted effect ratios with 95% confidence intervals

Conventional estimates are trimester-specific odds ratios and retain unequal gestational exposure opportunity. Time-to-event estimates are hazard ratios from delayed-entry models with time-varying exposure. ORs and HRs are different estimands.